

LINE LEADER

A line leader leads our class from one place to another, quietly and calmly. These two people will help our class get compliments in the hallway from those who see our class transitioning. These two students will set a good pace by not walking too fast or too slow.

Prompt, dependable, sets a good example, listens to directions: IM and JC

BATHROOM MONITOR

Bathroom monitors will walk classmates to the bathroom when a buddy is needed. These two students will travel in the hallway and keep their classmates safe. An important part of this role is to make sure students go to and from the bathroom without distracting the learning of our class and other classes. Any goofing around in the bathroom should be reported to the teacher.

Trustworthy, responsible, dependable, honest: JM and KB

DOOR HOLDER

Door Holders will hold the door when we are traveling in the hallway. These two people need to work together and alternate responsibility. If someone holds one door, the other one will hold the next. They are to greet their classmates with a smile.

Friendly, pleasant, strong, helpful, fair – AC and LF

CLOSET CLEANER

Throughout the day and especially at the end of the day, the closet cleaners are to make sure the closet looks presentable. When our classroom is clean and organized, there are less distractions and more learning will happen. These two people will work together and help keep the closet in order.

Helpful, dependable, attention to detail, – BM and KB

Hallway Messenger

Hallway messengers will complete tasks as needed. These two students will bring the attendance to the front office each morning. At times, these students may need to remind T. Jackie and T. Amy to complete the attendance. It is important for these two students to work together and deliver messages throughout the school safely.

Trustworthy, good memory, self-control, friendly – AS and MB

Table Leaders

Table leaders have many duties throughout the day. They are needed to get the bags of books every morning, writing bags when necessary, math books, and other assignments. These students are responsible for keeping their tables in order. It is important for these six students to set a good example for their table and follow directions.

Friendly, responsible, loyal, organized, respectful, loyal – DF, JB, TZ, BK, KT, ST

Chair Stacker

At the end of each day, the chair stackers are to neatly stack the chairs at their table. Our goal is to leave 102 at the end of the day cleaner and better than we found it that morning. When Ms. Tonya comes in at the end of the day, the chairs need to be organized and together.
Responsible, organized, helpful, strong, loyal – DB, VM, JL, NF, KG, CG

Books

These two students will make sure the books in our classroom are in order and organized. A good learning environment is clean and organized. These two students will help keep our books neat throughout the day and especially at the end of the day!
Attention to detail, respectful, friendly, patient– JB

Snack Carrier

Our snack carrier will bring morning snack to special every morning from 102. This student will remember to bring the basket so everyone can enjoy snack. It is important for this student to travel safely in the hallway to make sure the basket gets to music and gym safely.
Good memory, reliable, loyal, trustworthy, courteous, - JT

Date/Weather

Students are constantly asking what the date is, this student will always have the answer or be able to point you in the direction of the calendar. This student is reliable and comes to school on time. Dating our work is important, and this student will make sure our calendar is up-to-date.
Good memory, friendly, – MC
